Agenda item: Banking Resolution

Presenter: Paul and Stephanie

Discussion:

A check of banks was conducted by Stephanie and US Bank has the best terms for the needs of the association.

Their account is free to open and as long as we have no more than 150 transactions in a month and as long as we don't deposit over 2,500 in a month. There is a monthly fee of $6 if we want copies of our cashed checks returned in the statement or $14. a month if we want the actual checks returned to us.

To open the account with them we will need minutes from a meeting that lists the following:

The Club Name

Date it was founded

Officers Names

Names of account signers and a statement saying that the board has decided to open an account on the clubs behalf at US Bank

They will also need a copy of our Tax Id#

Conclusions:

The account will be opened in the name of Western States Dorper Association with US Bank. The account will be opened as a single signature account, With Stephanie Payne as the signer. The Association requires that financial statements be presented at every regular meeting as well as upon request request in accordance to the Associations By-laws.
